

Trung Tâm Nghiên Cứu Giáo Dục Người Khiếm Thính (CED)

The Center for Research and Education of Deaf and Hard Of Hearing People (CED)

On July 13th, 2016 The Center for Research and Education of Deaf and Hard Of Hearing People (CED) welcomed Mr. Theara Yim who visited and learned about livings, education and occupation of Vietnamese hard of hearing people as well as CED' activities. Mr. Theara is also a hearing-impaired person and a lecturer of a University in Quebec, Canada.

On July 28th, 2016 Ms Duong Phuong Hanh - CED Director shared social work with 10 third-year students specializing in Education Management, Educational Psychology of Education Faculty, the University of Social Science and Humanity who visited and explored social works and activities of CED.

On July 29th, 2016 Ms Duong Phuong Hanh - CED Director welcomed Mrs Tran Thien Tra, Consultancy Group Leader for Social Enterprises discussing about plans to organize vocational classes of hand-made soap manufacturing dedicated to the two social enterprises of employed disabled people and to other disabled people. The class is scheduled supposedly on end of August 2016.

July was finished, 10 students living from provinces of Phu Yen, Nha Trang, Cu Chi, outskirts districts of HCMCwho learned communication skills in summer CED classes, farewell to come back their home for new schooling. Wish you good studying and integrating.

CED News